Innovation, networking, competitions: everything is being prepared for the Funéraire Paris 2025 trade exhibition

From November 19 to 21, 2025, Funéraire Paris returns to Paris Le Bourget Exhibition Center for an edition focused on conviviality, innovation, and sustainable commitment.

Over the past month, many funeral industry professionals have already secured their spot for this 20th edition on the event's official website.

This highly awaited gathering promises to be rich in new developments, with over 210 exhibitors already confirmed including 61 new participants and 31 international companies.

3 competitions will punctuate the 3-day event: the Funéraire d'Or, the University Prize, and the Masters of Ceremony Eloquence Contest. These contests offer a unique opportunity to highlight the sector's expertise, creativity, adaptability, and as of this year sustainability in the face of industry challenges.

Each day, the event's partner professional organizations will host conferences addressing the landscape and the future of the funeral sector in France.

This 20th edition will also see the expansion of the Village of Associations, which will welcome around ten organizations connected to heritage and the funeral world, with missions particularly focused on cemetery-related issues.

The entire industry is coming together at FUNÉRAIRE PARIS 2025 for 3 days of connection and exchange.
